Great Lakes Properties Retains Peninsula Firm

Bryan Hardwick Associates, other Great Lakes Carbon advertising and public relations firm of Palos Verdes Estates, has been retained by Great Lakes Properties, Inc., to conduct an advertising and public relations program in the Southwest section of Los Angeles County. Great Lakes Properties, Inc., is a wholly owned subsidiary of Great Lakes Carbon Corp., which has been involved in planning and marketing more than 7,000 acres of prime Peninsula land since 1953. The firm currently is developing the Del Amo Financial Center, a $30 million segment of a planned 200-acre financial, hotel, and shopping center here. Another Great Lakes Carbon subsidiary, the Palos Verdes Water Co., has been a Hardwick account for the past two years. "Hardwick's work for Palos Verdes Water Co. has been extremely helpful in extending public understanding of that company," Jack Gardner, public relations manager for Great Lakes Properties, said. "We feel a broad corporate campaign styled along similar lines can benefit all our operations in the Peninsula-Southwest area." Gardner said advertising for the company's Del Amo Financial Center and for its Monte Verde homes on the Peninsula are not affected by the appointment.
